(ROME, 11 OCTOBER 2018)

Paul LEFEBVRE
Partner
Hanotiau & Van den Bergh

attend a reception hosted at the private residence of His Excellency the Belgian Ambassador to the Italian Republic.

The Residence is a superb Rome Palazzo located near the Roman Forum, in the very heart of the eternal city of Rome.

Towards the end of the successful IBA-meeting in Rome, the Belgian delegates and some selective guests of Roman society were invited to

It is in this prestigious setting with a terrace overlooking the ruins of ancient Rome, that the preeminent Belgian arbitration Centre CEPANI was offered the opportunity to promote its activities as the Belgian Arbitration Centre.

After introductory remarks by the Ambassador and by Dirk De Meulemeester, Chairman of Cepani, two distinguished Belgian arbitrators, the President of the Brussels Flemish Bar, Me Peter Callens, and Me Pascal Hollander, partner at Hanotiau & van den Berg, expressed their views on Brussels as seat of arbitral proceedings, respectively for national and international arbitration.

Mr. Ludo Deklerk, intervening in his capacity of chairman of the Belgian Association of Legal Counsel, Vereniging van Bedrijfsjuristen/Institut des Juristes d'entreprises, shared the opinion on the attractiveness of Brussels as an arbitration hub and an interesting alternative to the traditional places of international arbitration.

This roadshow was followed by an exquisite reception, combining elegance and ample opportunities for networking.

A truly exceptional night.
